The Council Grove Public Library serves a hub of community living and culture, offering opportunities for personal enrichment. It is our goal to provide access to current materials in a variety of formats to satisfy local interests, encourage reading and information literacy. We complement the collections of school libraries and the curriculum of public, private, and home schools.

We believe knowledge and information are vital to the quality of life and reading gives people, especially youth, the power to improve their lives. Your support helps achieve this goal. Thank you for your consideration.
